THANK YOU TOBY FOX!

HONESTLY being able to mod for this zine was soo awesome like awesome in words i can't even describe.. my fellow mods are so amazing and so are our contributors. i love all of toby fox's work and to be able to make something like this that is essentially an ode to these projects he's made has been wonderful.. undertale and deltarune are such lifechanging games for me and a huge thanks to toby for being so big-brained and making the most bangerest games ever. THANK U TOBY!!!

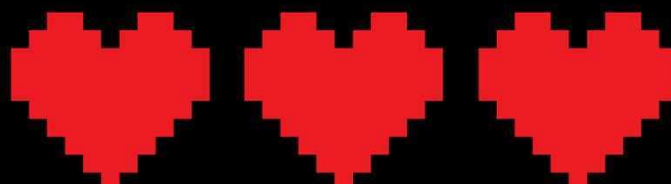

-EJ

seeing this zine develop and go from a simple idea to a full-blown passion project has truly been a blessing, and so has being able to work aside my fellow mods, EJ and AN! undertale was a humungous part of my childhood and remains a big part of me (from the things i write to the stuff i draw), so to partake in a tribute to Toby Fox's works means a million worlds to me!!! THANK YOU toby fox for practically raising me and changing me for the better forever:]

-BONBON

first of all, thank you EJ and BONBON for being mods of this zine, i couldn't be happier to have found you and became your friends! it was the most fun and wholesome journey along with all of our contributors, so thank you for making me happy! and for Toby Fox (and Temmie), if you're reading this, i want to thank you for your games, music and art, because it has inspired me everyday since i found it and played these masterpieces. it has a special place in my heart, so i wanted to make a love letter for your art <3 (P.S im so excited for deltarune ch3 and 4 i think i could explode)

THANK YOU CONTRIBUTORS!

To all our amazing contributors, we as a team wanted to say thank you!

You all have been extremely supportive, diligent, responsible (and most importantly) very creative and passionate about this fanzine.

It means the world to us, since this was one of the first big projects we have ever organized as a team and moderators, and we were so glad to find our contributors to be so hardworking and serious about these games, and this beautiful community that enjoys them.

We not only want to thank you for making art for this zine, but also for giving back all that love and happiness these games have brought to us, to its creators and fans, while helping people in need in the process, helping to raise donations for Palestine.

Our common interests and love for UNDERTALE and DELTARUNE have united all of us, truly giving each and one of us a reason to thank that someone who is perhaps the creator of these games, or the person who introduced us into playing it long time ago. Whoever it may be, we hope this zine works as a real "Love Letter" to show our gratitude.

Hopefully, in the future, we will get to make and share even more art and memories for these games, characters and stories, and forever cherish it in our hearts.
